Special agents, therefore, have been off the bar to warn vessels, armed or unarmed, having troops to reinforce Fort Sumter on board, not to enter the harbor. Special orders have been given to the commanders at the forts not to fire on such west off the West this morning attempted to enter the harbor with troops, after having been notified not to enter, and consequently she was fired into. This set is perfectly justified by me. I a regard to your threat about vessels in the harbor, it is only necessary for me to say that you alone must be the judge of your responsibility. Not position in the harbor has been tolerated by the authorities of the State, and while the act of which you complain is in perfect considering with the rights and duty of the State, it is not perceived how far the condition of an acquired province.

Charleston, Jan. 10 — Dispatches stating that the U.S. sloop-of-war Brooklyn is coming here with an armed force, creates intense excitement. Creat preparations are heige made in the harbor to receive her. A large steamer called the Mation, of the Charleston and New York line, has been purchased by Gov. Pickens, for South Carolina, and ordered to be razeed for a man-of-war. Her upper cahin is too be taken off, and she is to be supplied with a complete armament. The bnoys in the harbor have been removed. The Brooklyn cannot come in without a great fight. Major Anderson will protect her. It couly pledged himself, not to prevent communication hetween the South Carolina forts until Lieut. Talbot came back. A steam tug called the Aid, left the wharf to night, for the purpose of reconnoitering. She is mounted with one gun, and is under command of Lieut. Hamreconnoitering.
